Conditions and Entitlements

- Please keep a copy of this letter in a safe place for your references.
- After receiving your visa grant notice, you then need to submit your passport to the Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran- Baghdad in person in order to have your visa issued.
- The date on this notification, and the date of visa label, are according to Iran Standard Time (IRST) [UTC +3:30] (incorporating Daylight Saving Time [UTC 4:30], if applicable) on the relevant day. Depending on your location, these dates may differ by one day from your local date and may be in the future.
- After receiving the Visa Grant Notice, visa applicants, including children, are required to pay a non-refundable, non-transferable visa application fee. The visa fee is determined by the type of visa you are granted.
- Up until the time you arrive in Iran, you are required to tell us about any changes to your circumstances that may affect any answer to question in your online application form including your name, passport, contact details, address as soon as possible. Failure to notify the IR Iran Embassy or Consulate of your new circumstances could have serious consequences and your visa may be revoked.
- Your visa allows you single entry to Iran up to date stated on your visa. You are allowed to stay for a period of 30 day(s) on arrival. You will need to leave Iran or make alternation arrangements with the Visa Department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tehran before this date or you will become unlawful. If you think you will not be able to depart Iran by the date your visa expires, you should contact the Visa Department at the Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran- Baghdad as soon as possible.
- If you have any questions about this visa, or the process or information that was taken into account, you may contact us by any of the means appeared on our website.
